Unlocking the Mystery of the Soul: Accessing the Akashic Records

My journey into the Akashic Records began as a deep search for truth. Growing up during the Iran–Iraq war, I was surrounded by uncertainty and loss. This early experience ignited in me a relentless need to understand life, death, and the soul’s purpose. I explored theology, philosophy, psychology, and quantum physics, yet none could fully answer the questions in my heart—especially after the passing of my beloved mother. Her departure shattered every belief I had built and left me searching for clarity about the eternal nature of the soul.

The turning point came through what seemed like chance: a young woman who came to me for guidance spoke about the Akashic Records. In that moment, something stirred deeply within me—a remembrance of wisdom I had carried through lifetimes. When I received my formal initiation, it was as if the gateway opened not only for me but for my life’s purpose. From then on, the Records became a living part of my daily reality, guiding me, healing me, and showing me the truth of who we really are: infinite souls remembering our light.

Over the past six years, I have been holding initiation ceremonies once a month in three different languages—online and in person—initiating thousands into this sacred field. Each ceremony has brought new guidance, deeper clarity, and a clear message: this work must become available to the world. Humanity is undergoing a great shift in consciousness, and it is time for people everywhere to liberate themselves from karmic patterns, to understand the true root causes of disease, unhealthy relationships, and financial struggles, and to step into a higher vibration of awareness.

The Akashic Records are one of the most powerful tools for this transformation. They offer us direct access to the soul’s wisdom, helping us to release what no longer serves, to heal across timelines, and to awaken to our purpose with love and clarity.

This course is born from that guidance. It is more than a series of lessons—it is an energetic initiation, an opening of your central channel, and a raising of your vibration to align with the frequency of the Records. With the materials you’ll receive here you will be supported to enter the Akashic field safely, to channel with confidence, and to build a lifelong practice of guidance and healing.

As you step into this initiation, know that you are answering a calling that has been whispering to your soul across lifetimes. The Records are not outside of you—they live within you, waiting to be remembered. This journey is your doorway to Infinite Love, higher consciousness, and the truth of your soul.
